Beenish Mushtaq

Lecturer, Officer In-Charge Urdu Department
Chishtian, Punjab, Pakistan

Summary

Highly accomplished expert in the Urdu language, boasting a wealth of experience in teaching, research, and publishing. My academic journey led me to achieve a Doctor of Philosophy in Urdu from the prestigious Oriental College at the University of the Punjab. Over the years, I have imparted my knowledge by teaching various courses in Urdu literature and language at esteemed educational institutions in the Punjab Higher Education Commission.

My dedication to the field is underscored by my scholarly contributions. I have authored a notable article published in the esteemed Journal of Research Urdu B.Z.U Multan. Additionally, I have been honored with a gold medal in M.A Urdu from The Islamia University Bahawalpur and have received a merit scholarship from Oriental College, University of the Punjab.

Beyond academia, I possess versatile skills that include the art of reciting poems, composing poetry, crafting short stories and essays, and expertly editing magazines. My commitment to the Urdu language and literature remains unwavering, and I am dedicated to furthering its prominence and significance.
