Founding Father's Vision

I aspire for this university to emerge as a world-class institution, excelling in science, technology, social sciences, and humanities- not merely imparting education, but igniting a spirit of inquiry, debate, and intellectual exploration. By reconnecting with our rich heritage while embracing the challenges of the future, it will empower our youth to become pioneers and changemakers, shaping Pakistan's progress and global advancement.

The University of Narowal is not just an institution-it is envisioned as the birthplace of a knowledge renaissance, inspired by the past and driven by the future".

To become a beacon of knowledge and innovation, reviving the spirit of intellectual excellence exemplified by Al-Andalus, and emerging as a world-class university that advances research, critical inquiry, and transformative leadership for national and global progress.

Our Vice Chancellor

Prof. Dr. Muhammad Zia ul Haq
